

May is SCHOLASTIC NATIONAL FAMILY
READING MONTH

Every year during National Family Reading Month, Scholastic holds an exciting reading challenge as part of the celebration. This May, the focus is on families reading aloud together.

Kids are never too old for read-alouds. Research shows that across all ages, regular reading aloud with family members is a powerful predictor that children will become frequent readers, and that kids love it.
